Qalandars T10 Squad 2021

The Qalandars team squad 2021 has some very fine players as we mentioned earlier. Now first of all, if we look at their icon player, then who can be a better icon than Shahid Afridi? Afridi will be representing the Qalandars team squad in the 2021 T10 league, and he does not need any type of introduction. He has been one of the biggest match-winners in the history of cricket, and not just for his national side, but he has won matches single-handedly in T20 leagues all around the world.

After Afridi, we have four English players who will be a part of the Qalandars T10 squad, and they include, Samit Patel (Batting all-rounder), Phil Salt (Right-arm batsman), Chris Jordan (Right-arm medium-fast bowler), and Tom Banton (Right-arm opening batsman). The Englishmen will have good chemistry among them, as team coordination is one of the biggest factors in winning any game of cricket.

The last player that has been picked up by the Qalandars franchise is Sultan Ahmed from the United Arab Emirates. He will also be a part of the Qalandars squad for the upcoming Abu Dhabi T10 League.
