SRH Team History

Sunrisers Hyderabad came into the Indian Premier League scene in 2013. They were not part of the league in the initial 5 seasons. But as soon as they came, they had an immediate impact, finishing as the 4th best team in the league that year.

Afterward, their fan following started to grow. However, they had a disappointing performance in 2014 and 15, getting eliminated in the group stage. But the fans remained loyal to their club, and 2016 gave them their biggest present. Sunrisers Hyderabad defeated the unstoppable Royal Challengers Bangalore in the final to win their first IPL title.

In 2017, SRH again qualified for the playoffs but failed to go past the 4th position. In 2018, they reached the final once again, but the Chennai Super Kings proved out to be too good for them, and won their 3rd IPL title, breaking the hearts of Hyderabad fans. Next year, they again ended their tournament as the 4th best team, and last year they took the bronze medal home.

When it comes to qualifying for the playoffs, Sunrisers Hyderabad has been constant, but they have been lacking some luck in the playoff stage. Nevertheless, this year could be the time when they win their 2nd IPL title, and they certainly have the ability to do so.

SRH Team Coaches

Sunrisers are a big franchise in the IPL and one of the top as well. Managing a team like this requires some experienced individuals who are ready to give their all for the betterment of the squad. Undoubtedly, Hyderabad has exactly that. As far as the head coach of the team is concerned, we have Trevor Bayliss fulfilling the duties. The assistant coach is an excellent wicket-keeper batsman of his time, Brad Haddin.

The bowling mentor of the team is the Sri Lankan and an all-time legend, Muttiah Muralitharan. Moreover, the Indian batsman and Australia's nightmare of his generation, V. V. S. Laxman is the batting mentor of the squad. Lastly, the fielding coach is Biju George.
